A special thank you to...

- The Town of Collingwood for their assistance with equipment and promotion
- The many staging and organizing volunteers; in particular, Ken Templeman, our Parade Marshall and Town Crier
- The Collingwood Detachment of the OPP – both members of the Regular Detachment and Auxiliary Unit members - for their assistance in the staging of the parade control and traffic control
- All the service clubs, organizations, and local businesses who entered a float in the parade
- The Crew from Reliabuild Construction who assisted in installing and taking down the roping system that assured everyone was safe
- Bill Nicholson

The very best of the season to everyone and best wishes for a successful New Year!
